The 7-Step Rhythm

Restoration & provision prayers to speak over your life when you're waiting on God

How to use this

Print these pages. Cut out the cards along the dashed lines. Place each one where you'll see it daily — your mirror, your bathroom, your desk. Read the verse and pray the prayer out loud each morning. Let His Word restore what was lost.

When you feel alone

PSALM 23:3 (NIV)

“He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Lord, when the house is quiet and I feel unseen, remind me that You are El Roi — the God who sees me. You refresh my soul, my mind, my will, and my emotions. I am not alone. You are leading me, even now, one gentle step at a time. Amen.

When your heart is broken

PSALM 147:3 (NIV)

“He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Father, You are close to the brokenhearted. Take every wound that betrayal left behind and bind it up with Your own hands. I give You the pieces I could not fix myself. Heal what I cannot reach. Restore what was shattered. I trust You with my heart. Amen.

When you are afraid

ISAIAH 41:10 (NIV)

“So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

God, fear keeps trying to speak louder than Your promises. Today I choose to believe You over my fear. You are with me. You will strengthen me. You will hold me up when I feel like I am falling. I release the fear and I receive Your peace. Amen.

When you are full of doubt

PROVERBS 3:5-6 (NIV)

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Lord, I have tried to figure everything out on my own and it left me weary. Today I lay down my need to understand it all. I trust You with the parts I cannot see. Direct my steps. Make my crooked path straight. I choose faith over confusion. Amen.

When you need healing

JEREMIAH 30:17 (NIV)

“But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds, declares the Lord.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Father, You promised to restore my health and heal my wounds — the ones on my body and the ones no one can see. Renew my strength like the eagle's. Breathe life back into every tired place in me. I receive Your healing today, in Jesus' name. Amen.

When you need a financial breakthrough

JOEL 2:25 (NIV)

“I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten — the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm — my great army that I sent among you.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Lord, restore the years the enemy stole. Give me back what was lost, and let it return multiplied. You are my provider and my restorer. I trust You to open doors, redeem the time, and make room for more than I lost. I thank You in advance. Amen.

When it feels too late

GENESIS 50:20 (NIV)

“You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

God, what was meant to destroy me, You are turning for good. It is not too late. My story is not over. You are the God who sees, who redeems, who restores. Use even the hardest chapters to bring life. I surrender the whole story to You. Amen.

I have lived on both sides of Deuteronomy 28.

There is a chapter in the Bible that most people only quote half of.

The first half is beautiful. Blessings that chase you down and overtake you. Enough. More than enough.

But the second half of that chapter is what happens when we run ahead of God. And I have to be honest with you, because I think you have been lied to enough already.

I have lived in the second half.

I took the shortcut. I got impatient. I decided I could get there faster on my own than by waiting on God, and I lost things I cannot get back. Not because God is cruel — but because I stopped listening.

So when I tell you God provides, I am not saying it from a stage. I am saying it from the other side of losing almost everything and watching Him rebuild it anyway.

Here is what nobody tells you: the provision is real, but so is the surrender. You cannot claim the first half of the chapter while living the second half. That is not faith — that is a wish.

The prayers on the next pages are not magic words. They are what obedience sounds like out loud.

Pray them anyway. Even when the account is empty. Especially then.

DEUTERONOMY 28:1-2, 8, 12 (NIV)

“If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations on earth. All these blessings will come on you and accompany you if you obey the Lord your God... The Lord will send a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to... The Lord will open the heavens, the storehouse of his bounty, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands.”

MATTHEW 6:31-33 (NIV)

“So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

When the bills are more than the money

MATTHEW 6:26 (NIV)

“Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Father, You feed the birds and they never once worried about tomorrow. I am worth more to You than they are. So today I stop doing the math over and over at midnight. I bring You what I have and I trust You to cover what I don't. You have never let me starve. You are not going to start now. Amen.

When worry wakes you at 2am

MATTHEW 6:34 (NIV)

“Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

God, I have carried tomorrow's problems into tonight and it has cost me my sleep and my peace. I lay it down. I only have to survive today, and You are already in tomorrow waiting for me. Quiet my mind. Take the weight I was never built to carry. I choose rest over worry. Amen.

When you don't know what to chase first

MATTHEW 6:33 (NIV)

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Lord, I have chased the money, the fix, the fast way out — and it left me empty. Today I put You first, before the provision, before the plan. I seek Your kingdom and I trust You to handle what I need. No more shortcuts. Just obedience, and You keeping Your word. Amen.

When you're rebuilding after loss

DEUTERONOMY 28:2 (NIV)

“All these blessings will come on you and accompany you if you obey the Lord your God.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

Father, I know both sides of this promise. I have lived in the season where nothing worked. But I am walking in obedience now, and I am believing You for the blessing that follows it. Let it chase me down and overtake me. Restore what obedience unlocks. I receive it. Amen.

When you've been lied to about God's promises

HOSEA 4:6 (NIV)

“My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.”

A PRAYER TO PRAY

God, I have believed things about You that were never true — that You were done with me, that provision was for other people, that I had used up my chances. I let those lies go. Teach me Your Word for myself so no one can sell me a counterfeit again. Amen.

Your restoration starts here.

These prayers are the beginning, not the whole rhythm. If you're ready to stop praying alone and actually sit with God — to journal it, dig into the Word yourself, and rebuild — here is where to go next.
